

Betty Elvira Clements

March 2, 1943 - December 23, 2021

In Loving Memory

Betty Elvira Richey Clements, 78 of Houston passed away peacefully on December 23, 2021.

Betty was born March 2, 1943 in Houston, Texas to Claude and Ethel Richey. She grew up in Houston where she attended school and married her husband James David Clements. They enjoyed a full life together for 43 years in Houston where they made their home and had three children. After his passing, she moved to Carrollton, Texas to live closer to her daughter (Belinda) and son-in-law (Brian Coleman).

Betty is survived by her 3 children (Cindy Clements, Belinda Coleman, and Bruce Clements) and her 4 grandchildren (Cody Coleman, Kayla Coleman, Jake Clements and Brittany Clements). She is also survived by her sister Lillie Martensen, brother-in-law Herb Martensen, her sister Martha Richey, and her numerous nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was predeceased by her brother Robert Richey, her sister Mary Henley.

Betty will be remembered as loving, honest, loyal, kind, funny and giving, who was always there for her family and friends. She loved fishing, cake decorating, collecting coins and playing card games with family and friends.

We will miss her stories, her advice, and her never-ending love. Always in our hearts, she will be truly missed.

The Celebration of Life for Betty will be held at a later time when it is right to socially gather safely.
