

Deborah Alice Rizzo

November 7, 1953 - November 26, 2024

Deborah Rizzo, 71, of Argyle, Texas, passed away on Monday, November 25, 2024, after a courageous battle with cancer. She is survived by her loving husband of 53 years, Phillip Rizzo; her daughters, Tracy Kollintzas (Dean) and Leslie Cox (Brian); and her cherished granddaughter, Jaelin Rizzo.

Debbie lived life to the fullest, especially when surrounded by family and friends. She was dearly loved by many and affectionately referred to as “Mom” by those who knew her. Her family would gather every Sunday afternoon for her famous pasta—a dish also shared during holidays. In addition to her love for family, Debbie had a special place in her heart for her Boxer dogs. And wherever she went, they were sure to follow.

Her radiant smile lit up any room, her infectious laughter was a source of joy, and her playful sarcasm was adored by all. Debbie was the life of every party — always the first to hit the dance floor and the last to leave—dancing as if no one were watching. While her physical presence is no longer with us, those who loved her should take comfort in knowing she is now soaring high. And her legacy of love, joy, and strength will continue to inspire all who knew her.

In honor of Debbie’s memory, the family will hold a private Mass and celebration of life. For those who wish to make a donation in Debbie’s honor, the family suggests contributing to the American Cancer Society.

“ My favorite memory of Debbie, was when we worked together at MAI, there was a period of down time, so we would play music, the song FOOTLOOSE, came on, and damn , Debbie jump up ontop of her desk and started dancing!!' We all were singing and dancing around her. I love that girl xox, keep dancing, until we meet again
