Kathryn Rutledge Casper

November 12, 1958 - December 27, 2024

Spartanburg, SC

Kathryn Rutledge Casper, age 66, of Spartanburg, South Carolina, passed away peacefully on December 27, 2024, due to heart failure.

Born on November 12, 1958, in Cedartown, Georgia, Kathy was the youngest of three children born to Mary and Norman Rutledge.

In 1981, Kathy married Ron Casper, and together they raised two children, Aaron and Jennifer. Kathy's greatest joy in life was her family, and she dedicated herself wholeheartedly to her role as a loving mother. Beyond her devotion to her children, she had a passion for reading, gardening, and sharing her warm wit with others.

Kathy's professional journey led her to work in nutrition services for Lewisville ISD, where she lovingly cared for "her kids" each day, providing them with meals and support. In her later years, Kathy retired and cherished the opportunity to spend more time with her children and grandchildren, as well as to travel and create new memories with those she loved.

Kathy is preceded in death by her parents, Norman and Mary Rutledge, and her beloved husband, Ron Casper. She is survived by her children, Aaron Casper and Jennifer Admunson; her siblings, Keith and his wife, Brenda, Kelvin and his wife, Rhonda, and her sister Sara Jane; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, grandchildren, extended family, and close friends.

A celebration of Kathy's life will be held in the spring of 2025, where family and friends will gather to honor her legacy and the lasting impact she made on all who knew her.
