February 26, 1953 – January 19, 2026

Lorenzo Bradley, Sr., 72, of Michigan City, Indiana, passed away on January 19, 2026. Born on February 26, 1953, in Ruleville, Mississippi, he was the son of Nora B. Hills and Curtis Jackson. He was raised in Belzoni before moving to Michigan City during his youth, where he graduated from Elston High School.

Shortly after graduation, Lorenzo answered the call to duty and joined the United States Marine Corps to serve and honor his country. He was profoundly dedicated to the Marines and cherished the time he spent in the service, carrying the pride and discipline of the Corps throughout his entire life.

Upon returning to Michigan City after his military service, Lorenzo worked briefly at the Indiana State Prison before beginning a distinguished career as a boilermaker at Weil-McLain. A true testament to his character and work ethic, Lorenzo dedicated 41 years to the company before his well-earned retirement.

Lorenzo's strength and legacy live on through his family. He was preceded in death by his mother, Nora B. Hills; his father, Curtis Jackson; his very special Aunt/Mother, Mary Louise Bradley; his firstborn daughter, Shama Kiner; and his beloved friend, Michael "Mikey" Grinston.

He is survived by his children:

Felicia Bradley;

Lorenzo Bradley Jr.;

DeAja Bradley;

Tynisha Bradley;

DeAnwar Bradley;

LaBronaca Bradley;

and Tiffany Butcher.

Lorenzo's legacy also shines through his nine beloved grandchildren, who brought him great pride. He is also survived by his four sisters, Cathy Lampton, Rebecca Tyler, Brenda Flowers, and Grenda Hills-Garner. Lorenzo also leaves behind Pamela Bush and Kim Watkins, from his previous marriages, along with a host of extended family and friends. He will be remembered as a man of service, hard work, and dedication.
