Sharon Wells Parker, a resident of McKinney, Texas, passed away on Thursday, March 28th, 2024 at the age of 87. Sharon was a preschool music teacher, a choir director, private piano instructor, pianist, organist, cellist and vocalist. She never met a stranger and enjoyed her social life. Her heart was deeply in love with the Lord and desired to know Jesus and serve Him. Time with her family was most precious to her, especially during holidays and special events. She loved animals, and they responded to her in kind.

A Celebration of Life service will be held on Saturday, May 11, 2024 at 4 pm at Hamilton Mill Christian Church in Buford, GA, with a reception to follow. As we will be celebrating per Sharon's wishes, bright colored attire is encouraged.

“ Sharon was one of those people that as soon as you met her, it was like she had known you all your life. Her laugh and beautiful smile were contagious. I began writing to her about every couple of weeks about a year ago. I think she enjoyed getting my cards and letters. She even responded back a few times. She would send me Bible verses that were meaningful to her and they showed her love for Jesus. I am grateful that I got to know her through Lori, Bunco when she was at Lori's and through our correspondence. She was a true child of God and I'm glad for the little time we had together. She will be missed by so many that she touched.

“ Richard and Family, Sharon will be remembered fondly by my husband and I, as well as all her church family at Celebration Church in Hoschton, GA. We have missed you both since you moved to Texas. Sharon was always such a bright and wonderful person to be around. We know that Sharon loved the Lord and are comforted knowing she'll be with Him until we're all with her one day. We love you and are praying for you all...with all our love, Bev and Joe Singh.
