

Shirley Ann Duba

July 20, 1946 - June 3, 2025

Shirley A. Duba (nee Chiaramonte), born July 20, 1946 in Chicago, was born to eternal life on June 3, 2025. Shirley was the beloved wife of William Duba. She was the cherished mother of William Duba Jr (Andrea). She was Nana to Declan. She is survived by her siblings Bob Chiaramonte (Maria), Sharon Chiaramonte, and Rich Chiaramonte (Vita), her brothers-in-law Michael Duba (Lucy) and Rich Duba, and many nieces and nephews.

Shirley grew up in the south side of Chicago graduating from Lourdes High School and studying at Fox Business College. After graduation, she met her future husband Bill at the Holiday Ballroom where they danced throughout the night. They were later married on May 20, 1967 and welcoming their son Bill Jr just 10 months later. They purchased their first home in Oak Forest having lived there 35 years until moving to McKinney, TX to be closer to their son. Shirley told all her friends and family that she was not going to be that Grandparent that lived far away and was only seen at the holidays. Shirley lived up to that promise. Shirley's grandson Declan was born in 2008. Shirley enjoyed watching Declan playing piano, baseball, lacrosse and hockey. Shirley and Bill travelled across the Country and even to Canada to watch him play hockey. After falling ill and battling various ailments, her motivational goals were to get strong enough to be able to see him play again.

In lieu of flowers, kindly consider donations to Shirley's favorite charities: St.

Jude Children's Research Hospital or Wounded Warrior Project.
